Volunteer Position Description:

Distress Centre Halton

The Distress Line is the core of our service offering. We serve Hamilton. Our volunteers are trained to provide emotional support and encouragement, suicide risk assessment and prevention, as well as community resource and referral information. TeleCheck is our outbound call program that supports isolated seniors, people struggling with their mental health, caregivers, Alzheimer's patients, clients awaiting mental health services, or people needing additional community mental health support.

Remote Volunteering Opportunities. Application can be found here.
